

Service Facilitator Application

A Service Facilitator is a third party to which a Distributor outsources the responsibility for managing some portion of its technical, financial, legal, or operational role in distributing the Information. Service Facilitators are agents of the Distributor, such as owners or operators of websites displaying the Distributor's Service, software developers, facilities managers, property managers and providers of other support services. Service Facilitators have no right to use Information outside of the Distributor's Service.

Please submit a separate Service Facilitator Application for each Service Facilitator.

If a particular line item is not applicable, leave blank.

For more information on the Service Facilitation Policy, please refer to the Service Facilitation Policy
