

Nasdaq Canada

Notice 2024-03-28

March 28, 2023

What is being announced?

Effective July 1, 2024, Nasdaq will bill customers who provide an address outside of Canada in USD for all Nasdaq Canada Market Data products, pending OSC approval.

Why is Nasdaq making this change?

The goal of this change is to align Nasdaq Canada with existing billing practices in the Canadian market by providing non-Canadian customers the opportunity to be billed in USD.

When will the change be effective?

These changes will be effective by July 1, 2024, pending OSC approval.

Which products will be impacted?

Firms may see an impact to their Nasdaq Canada Market Data distribution fees or usage fees should they choose to provide a Non-Canadian billing address.

How do I know if I will be impacted?

Customers with a non-Canadian billing address currently on file with Nasdaq may see an impact.

Customer location will be determined by the invoice address customers elect to provide to Nasdaq. Customers who provide an address inside Canada will be billed in CAD. Customers who provide an address outside Canada will be billed in USD.

Changes to billing address can be made by contacting the Nasdaq Data Operations Team.

Who should I reach out to for more information?

For more information, please reach out to DataOps@Nasdaq.com