

Decision by the Disciplinary Committee regarding Acenta Group AB

Stockholm, December 11, 2025— The Disciplinary Committee of Nasdaq Stockholm (the “Exchange”) has found that Acenta Group AB (the “Company”) has breached the rules of Nasdaq First North Growth Market (the “Rulebook”) and therefore ordered the Company to pay a fine of six annual fees, corresponding to an amount of SEK 750,000.

The Disciplinary Committee has determined that the Company, on two occasions, violated Article 17 of the EU Market Abuse Regulation (“MAR”) by failing to disclose inside information in the correct manner.

On April 8, 2025, the Company announced that it had entered into a loan agreement and stated that the loan was subject to market terms. Given the Company’s financial position, the Committee considers that the interest rate was of such significance that information about the rate was necessary to enable a complete and accurate assessment of the information regarding the loan.

On July 25, 2025, the Company announced that it had entered into another loan agreement. The Committee finds that the press release did not allow for a complete and accurate assessment because it lacked information about the interest rate for the loan as well as details regarding share issues addressed in the loan agreement.

The Committee considers these breaches to be serious and therefore imposes a sanction. The penalty is set at six annual fees.
